

A Knee Deep Into History Online Seminar Doubleheader...

Part 1: Following KG Peiper's Advance Using Google Earth by Markus Klauer

Sunday, 2 March at 1:00pm EST / 19h00 CET

Part 2: The Encirclement and Elimination of KG Peiper by Randy Gaulke

Sunday, 9 March at 1:00pm EST / 19h00 CET

Get knee deep into history with one of the most famous stories of the Ardennes Offensive with a two-part online seminar focused on the initial advance and then the encirclement and elimination of Kampfgruppe Peiper.

In the first presentation German historian and battlefield guide Markus Klauer chronicles the initial advance of KG Peiper using Google Earth. It's a very unique way to follow the story.

One week later, American historian and battlefield guide Randy Gaulke chronicles the efforts of the 30th Infantry Division and other units to encircle and finally eliminate KG Peiper.

Markus Klauer is a retired German Bundeswehr officer with experience in an armored brigade. Together, Markus and Randy offering tours of WW1 and WW2 battlefields in Western Europe designed to get participants into the field, to satisfy people with a serious interest in military history and to tell both sides of the story.

The seminars will be presented online via Zoom Approx. length is 90 minutes each.
To receive login details, email your name, state and country to kneedeepintohistory@gmail.com.

Entrance is gratis, but donations are welcome to defer Zoom subscription and other overhead costs.
Donations can be sent via PayPal to kneedeepintohistory@gmail.com.
Information regarding our tours can be found at kneedeepintohistory.com.